

RMSA is pleased to offer micro-grant funding for projects involving seeds and seed saving education as well as any programs, events, or creative expression that address environmental and/or social justice. These grants are within the range of $150-$300 per project.

To apply for a RMSA micro-grant, please complete the following questionnaire so we may gain a better understanding of your project and your needs. Individuals, sovereign entities, and/or community collectives are welcome to apply. Please return the application to: Lee-Ann@RockyMountainSeeds.org or mail to RMSA P.O. Box 405 Mancos, CO 81328.

- Name of contact person responsible for project:
- Contact person's email, phone number, and mailing address:
- How do you self identify?
- Tell us a little about yourself and your interest in seeds, and/or environmental and social justice:
- Describe your project idea: (Please include information such as: project title, what you intend your project to accomplish, project location(s), when you plan to implement your project, length of the project lifespan, and why you feel your project is important/ needed.)
- How will you spend this grant? (A simple budget with an expense list of items, wages, and etc. is sufficient.)
- How will your project impact/benefit your community and/or the planet?
- How would you prefer to share your project's progress with RMSA?
- If selected, would you be willing to provide a short presentation (video or photos) about your project that RMSA could post on our Facebook Page and other social media?
- What else would you like to share about yourself and your project?

Thank you for your interest. We will be in touch. If you or anyone you know would like to contribute to the micro-grant fund, please contact jackee@RockyMountainSeeds.org.